Prof. I. Sinescu, MD, had no implication in the relationship with “Carol Davila” Printing Press and in the process of publishing the above-mentioned articles.

Therefore, “Carol Davila” University Press takes the blame for these dysfunctions and considers appropriate the withdrawal of the two above-mentioned articles from PubMed and the archive of the journal (website and printed versions).

The University Press who is the owner of Journal of Medicine and Life regrets the possible prejudices suffered by the authors by the publishing the two articles (revised versions of a single article) and wishes to continue the collaboration with the authors.
